

SPARSH

...enlightening lives

Welcome to the September issue of Sparsh, BRPL's CSR newsletter. This month, our commitment to uplifting communities shines through diverse initiatives focused on health, education, sustainability, and empowerment. From tobacco de-addiction camps and eye care outreach to financial literacy workshops and skill-building programs, BRPL continues to drive meaningful change where it's needed most.

At BRPL, each step in our CSR journey reflects a dedication to fostering a future where dignity, opportunity, and well-being are accessible to all. Our efforts are more than projects—they're pathways toward positive transformation. Join us as we celebrate the lives touched and the milestones achieved in September, lighting up lives beyond the grid.

A Clearer Vision: Eye Care for All

Through our eye camps held in Develi Road and Asola Bhati Mines, BRPL is helping communities see a brighter future. With over 224 people screened and 143 pairs of glasses distributed this September alone, we're giving the gift of sight one lens at a time.

Tobacco No More! Lighting the Path to a Smoke-Free Life

BRPL continues its fight against tobacco and drug addiction by organizing de-addiction camps across Delhi. In September, over 126 participants attended camps in South and West Delhi, with 104 individuals successfully quitting their habits. Empowering the underprivileged to breathe easy again!

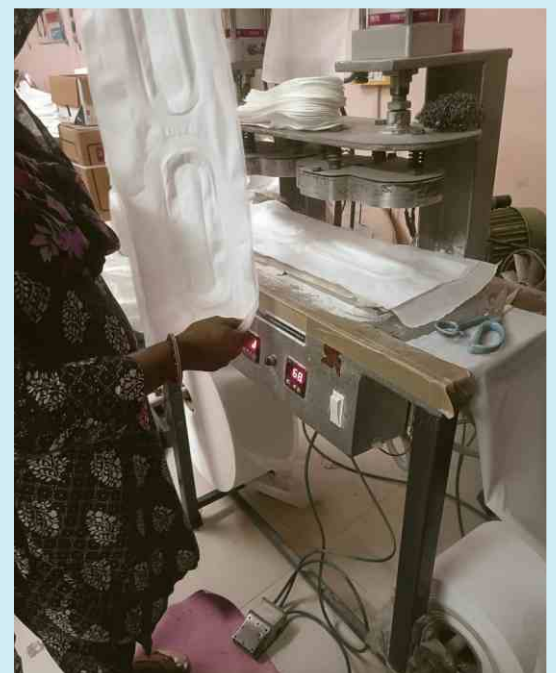

Yoga for a Better Tomorrow: Stretching Health Beyond Classrooms

This September, BRPL brought wellness to the students and staff of government schools with eight yoga camps, benefiting 250 individuals. With 2,510 attendees across 60 camps so far, we're committed to fostering a healthier community through the power of yoga.

Hygiene at Hand: Crafting Comfort for Women in Need

Our self-help groups are weaving positive change with homemade sanitary napkins and masks, reaching the underprivileged. In September, 4,529 sanitary napkins were crafted, with 4,500 distributed. Every stitch supports a healthier tomorrow.

Rooting for Green: Growing Our Commitment to a Greener Delhi

BRPL isn't just about powering homes; we're also planting hope for the planet. Nearly 10,000 trees and shrubs were planted in various schools and government sites across Delhi in September, bringing our yearly total to over 36,000. Let's nurture a sustainable future together!

Empowering Dreams, One Skill at a Time!

Through our Vocational Training Centers, BRPL empowers youth to pursue their aspirations. With over 1,257 trainees completing their courses from April to September, we're helping dreams take shape.

Financial Literacy: Bank on a Brighter Future!

BRPL's financial literacy program is opening doors to banking for underserved communities. In September, 500 women gained insights into managing money and opened bank accounts, stepping confidently into financial security.

Strength in Numbers: Self-Help Groups for Women's Empowerment

Our Self-Help Groups are more than training grounds; they are lifelines for economic growth. In September, 40 women joined SHGs, learning crafts like toy making and sewing. These groups strengthen not only skills but also the spirit of self-reliance.

Clicking with the Community: Digital Libraries for a Better Tomorrow

BRPL's donation of 11 computers to Delhi Police's digital library is creating a bridge between the youth and the police. This project promotes community harmony while providing educational support to future leaders.

Handloom Heritage: Crafting Traditions, Stitching Futures in Uttam Nagar and Sangam Vihar

The Handloom Incubation Centres at Uttam Nagar and Sangam Vihar are weaving a brighter future by preserving our rich textile heritage and empowering women. In September alone, 82 beneficiaries in Uttam Nagar were trained to blend traditional arts with a modern touch, crafting market-ready products, while 25 women in Sangam Vihar gained valuable skills to achieve financial independence and support their families and communities.
