

BRPL' CSR programs are changing lives, literally. They are not only giving people, especially women, from the unprivileged sections, confidence and hope, they are also empowering them, financially.

BRPL CSR Trivia

Adult Literacy Program: Over 24,000 women have benefited from the program that began in FY 2014-2015. The 8th batch has just been enrolled.

Eye Care Camps: Into its 5th year and 65 camps old, the program has given better vision to over 24,000 residents

Vocational Training: Over 3,000 youngsters (mainly women) have received job oriented trainings. Participants have either been placed in firms like Big Bazaar, Dominos and Paytm or have opened their own small scale ventures.

Self Defence Training for girls: Over 3500 girls from 39 schools are ready to defend themselves in case of any adversity.

Tobacco De-addiction programs: Eighteen camps have seen over 1300 people quit smoking and chewing tobacco

Success Stories: Empowering lives

Anisha

I am a resident of Meera Bagh. I am very much thankful to BRPL, who gave us an opportunity to learn at this age at the "Women Literacy Class". I never went to school as my parents were poor and they could not afford my education expenses.

Bhavna Saini

I am a graduate from Delhi University. My economical condition is not so good. We have a large family to support. I came to know about the "Vocational Training Centre" being run by BRPL. Now I am stitching clothes at my home and would like to open my own boutique, which is at the moment a dream

Lavleen

I am 12th Passed. I came to know about Vocational Training Centre being run by BSES. I wanted to get knowledge about beauty culture and got admission. I have learnt more through this centre. Now I have opened my own beauty parlour at my home.

Sheela's Story

She came to know about our centre through her niece and decided to join our tailoring class. After completing course in Cutting and Tailoring, she got a job of Rs. 4000/-. Later on she decided to work on her own. She is earning between Rs. 12000-14000 per month now.
